Our Mission
To provide essential services that remove barriers, strengthen families, and promote healing when children need healthcare.

Our Vision
A world where every family has what they need to ensure the best health outcomes for their children.

Our Purpose
Caring for families with children who are ill or injured.

Letter from Leadership

Dear Friends and Supporters,

We officially became Ronald McDonald House New England in early 2026. While our name has evolved, our mission has not. Our new identity reflects the comprehensive continuum of care we provide throughout New England where we believe that no family should have to face the uncertain journey of their child's life-saving medical treatment alone and the simple promise that has always been at the heart of our work: Family Stays.

When a child is facing a serious illness or injury, everything changes in an instant. Families leave behind their homes, routines, jobs, schools, and support systems to be where they are needed most, by their child's side.

In 2025, because of generous supporters like you, hundreds of families found more than a place to stay. We served 313 families more than 18,000 warm meals after a long day at the hospital;provided 9,294 nights of lodging that saved them an estimated $2.7 million in lodging costs; and introduced them to an empathetic community of caring and compassionate staff and volunteers as well as fellow families who understood their child's medical journey because they were on a similar path.

Whether gathering at Night Out at Fenway, lacing up for the Boston Marathon, Falmouth Road Race, or Women's Classic, preparing meals through Meals with Love, or volunteering their time at one of our Houses or Family Rooms, thousands of supporters came together and transformed compassion into action—proving these events are not only about fundraising but also are celebrations of a community united by the belief that families belong together during a child's medical journey.

Strong partnerships make our mission possible, and our collaboration with hospital partners, corporate supporters, volunteers, and our Founding and Forever Partner, McDonald's, remain at the heart of everything we do. Together, we help create welcoming spaces where families can find comfort, connection, and hope when they need it most.

However, demand for our services continues to grow, particularly in Boston, where more families than ever are traveling to find answers at the global hub of healthcare innovation. As we look ahead, our vision is bold but simple: ensure every family has access to the care, comfort, and support they need by expanding our programming so that families can be close to world-class care on which their children depend.

Your generosity has had an impact. Whether you made a gift, attended an event, volunteered, prepared a meal, supported us through McDonald's, advocated for our mission, or introduced someone new to Ronald McDonald House New England, you helped make a difference in the lives of families facing the unimaginable.

On behalf of our Board of Directors, dedicated staff, volunteers, and the families whose lives you have touched, thank you for believing in our mission and investing in a future where every family can remain together when it matters most.

Because of you, families stayed close so children could heal surrounded by the people who love them most.

Because of you, Family Stays.

With gratitude,
Lauren

Meet Asher and His Family

Baby Asher was born at just 27 weeks. Right away, Nila's world shifted into a blur of monitors and medical jargon. As a micro-preemie, Asher battled lung disease and the many complications that come with arriving so early. For 136 days, the hospital became their entire world. Nila remembers the weight of those first few weeks vividly.

"I was very scared that he wouldn't make it," she says.

"Every day was a blessing, and I constantly thought of the life-long impact it would have on his development."

In the middle of that excruciating fear, a social worker at Women & Infants Hospital connected Nila with the Operations team at the Ronald McDonald House. It turned out to be the lifeline she and her six-year-old daughter, Amina, needed to keep going. Because the House is located just steps away from the hospital, Nila didn't have to choose between being at Asher's bedside and giving Amina a sense of normalcy. They could walk back and forth easily, staying close to the care Asher needed while finding a moment to breathe.

For Nila and Amina, it was temporary break from the sterile walls of the NICU. "It was a place of refuge," Nila shares. "A room where me and my daughter could sleep and rest from being in the hospital all day. The breakfast and dinner was a plus. We didn't have to order food every night and had a healthy breakfast before we left for the hospital every morning." Those hot meals and quiet nights allowed them to pour all their energy into Asher's recovery.

Today, the impact of those 136 days remains with them, but so does the memory of the community that held them up. Before going to the hospital each day, Amina always made it a point to stop by the volunteer office to say good morning and hello to the staff first. And for Nila, having a place to rest just a short walk from her baby made all the difference in their journey home.

"A room where me and my daughter could sleep and rest from being in the hospital all day."

Meet the Bosak Family

For the Bosak family, traveling from Springfield, Massachusetts, to Providence, Rhode Island, for specialized care, that journey was compounded by years of frustration. They faced the profound strain of being given the run around by countless doctors before finally receiving a definitive diagnosis of Tethered Cord Syndrome from Hasbro Children's Hospital.

Years of medical uncertainty leave an emotional toll, making an already stressful situation even more overwhelming.

"After being dismissed so many times, we were fearful of trying to trust strangers," the family shared. "The people at Ronald McDonald House quickly put an end to those fears. We were welcomed by the staff who made us feel like family."

"Receiving free housing that is located one street over from Hasbro Children's Hospital was helpful financially," they noted. "They also provided a shuttle that brought us to the hospital very early the next morning. The room we were given was cleaner than any hotel we have ever stayed in. They offered support as well during this difficult time."

From the moment the Bosak family crossed the threshold, the apprehension of the preceding years began to dissolve, replaced by an immediate sense of belonging and community. Navigating a complex surgical diagnosis is challenging enough withouth the added burdens of travel, lodging, and all the expenses that come along with it. For families in crisis like the Bosaks, the physical environment of a recovery space can dramatically impact their emotional well-being.

"Receiving free housing that is located one street over from Hasbro Children's Hospital was helpful financially."

“Thank you for your generosity. Our family received a call that no one ever wants to receive: your son has been in an accident and requires surgery. Traveling 5.5 hours north to be by his side takes a toll, the accommodations that you help provide through Ronald McDonald House provide an invaluable peace of mind when needed most.”
